The Current Economics (CE) newsletter assists students and teachers in keeping up to date with current trends, issues and government policies in the Australian and global economies.

Current Economics features articles on key topics in Australian secondary economics courses, written and edited by Tim Riley.

Current Economics also includes economic statistics and budget forecasts; analysis of trends in the Australian and global economies such as the COVID-19 pandemic; government policies; and briefs on selected economic issues and economic theories.

Some of the topics covered during 2021 include:

- Prospects for the Global Economy in 2021
- The Outlook for the Australian Economy in 2021
- Updated Case Study of the Chinese Economy
- Recent Trends in Australia's Trade and Balance of Payments
- The Impact of Changes in Australia's Exchange Rate
- The 2021-22 Federal Budget and Fiscal Policy
- The Reserve Bank's Recent Conduct of Monetary Policy
- Microeconomic Reform in Product and Factor Markets
- Recent Trends in Growth, Inflation and Unemployment
- Current Trends in the Australian Labour Market
- Global and Australian Environmental Sustainability
- Trends in Australia's Distribution of Income and Wealth
- Recent Trends in Australian Consumption and Saving
