The Current Economics (CE) newsletter assists students and teachers in keeping up to date with current trends, issues and government policies in the Australian and global economies.

Current Economics features articles on key topics in Australian secondary economics courses, written and edited by Tim Riley.

Current Economics also includes economic statistics and budget forecasts; analysis of trends in the Australian and global economies such as high inflation and interest rates; government policies; and briefs on selected economic issues and theories.

Some of the topics covered during 2024 include:

- Prospects for the Global Economy in 2024
- The Outlook for the Australian Economy in 2024
- China's Economic Growth and Development
- The Impact of Globalisation on Growth and Development
- Australia's Trade, Financial Flows and Balance of Payments
- The 2024-25 Federal Budget and Fiscal Policy
- The Reserve Bank's Recent Conduct of Monetary Policy
- The Effects of a Depreciation and Appreciation of the E/R
- Trends in Growth, Inflation and Unemployment in 2024
- Trends in the Australian Labour Market in 2024
- The Use of Macroeconomic Policies for Stabilisation
- Australia's Net Foreign Liabilities and Net Foreign Debt
- Demand and Supply and Market Equilibrium
